

ARTS ARCHITECTURE - WHAT WE DO

ArtsArchitecture is a design and consultancy practice specialising in arts and cultural buildings. Unlike most traditional architects or designers, we also provide consultancy services for feasibility studies, project development and brief-writing for museums, galleries, performance spaces and other public buildings and arts venues.

We offer a wide range of services for commissions, including:

- Architectural Design
- Interior Design
- Museum Exhibition Design
- Museum and Gallery Planning Consultancy
- Theatre and Auditorium Planning
- Brief-writing and Project Development
- Project Management
- Building Appraisals and Conservation Statements
- Feasibility Studies and Options Appraisals
- Collections Management Consultancy
- Project Management
- Advice and Assistance for Lottery Bids

Its Director, David Wright, has over 20 years' professional experience, gained almost exclusively in the arts sector. A chartered member of the Royal Institute of British Architects, David has designed, built and refurbished many high-profile arts buildings in the UK and abroad, and was Design Director for the restorations of the London Coliseum and Brighton Museum and Art Gallery, before founding ArtsArchitecture in 2005. He is currently the Design Architect for a new National Museum in the Sultanate of Oman. He also provides specialist historic building and interiors consultancy, brief-writing and project development services.

David is supported by an Architectural team located in the vibrant atmosphere of Chatham Historic Dockyard.

In addition to architectural design, we provide wider Consultancy services when required. David provides Theatre Planning and Interior Design consultancy. He is supported by Senior Consultants Rowena Willard-Wright, with over 15 years' experience working with museums, cultural organisations and historic buildings, and Sally Annett, artist, former Director of FRINGEMK and co-founder of Westbury Farm Studios. Our long-time experience in the arts sector means we can call on other highly experienced individuals and specialist consultant firms to join our team and tailor it to specific client needs, thus offering a bespoke service at highly economic rates.

Our passion for the visual and performing arts, together with a deep commitment to the fulfilment of his clients' individual needs in the creation
